Bestolarides Campaign Receives Unanimous Support from Board of Supervisors

(Stockton) — Stockton City Councilman and 3rd Supervisorial District candidate Steve Bestolarides announced today that he has received the endorsements of all five current San Joaquin County Supervisors.

“Steve’s experience, willingness to ask the tough questions, and commitment to sound fiscal policy makes him the most qualified candidate to represent the citizens of the 3rd District,” said Supervisor and current Board Chairman Ken Vogel. “I am proud to endorse Steve Bestolarides for County Supervisor.”

Supervisors endorsing Bestolarides include; Ken Vogel, Larry Ruhstaller, Leroy Ornellas, Steve Gutierrez and current 3rd District Supervisor Victor Mow.

“It is an honor to have the support and endorsements of all 5 current members of the Board of Supervisors,” said Bestolarides. “This current Board is one of the best group of leaders our county has ever had.”

Steve Bestolarides is currently serving his second term on the Stockton City Council. Originally elected in 2002, he is seeking to succeed current San Joaquin County District 3 Supervisor Victor Mow who must step down due to term limits. Born and raised in San Joaquin County, Steve Bestolarides resides in Stockton with his wife Doreen and their two sons Danny and Paul.
